RIVERMONT

Inspired by the winding rivers, wooded shorelines, and enduring craftsmanship found throughout America's river towns, the Rivermont Collection brings warmth, texture, and timeless character to the dining room.

Defined by thoughtful details and crafted in solid wood, Rivermont balances refined design with everyday durability. The collection includes two dining tables, three coordinating chairs, and a buffet, each designed to create welcoming spaces for gathering, sharing, and making memories.

Showcasing two distinctive finishes—Wheat and Coal—Rivermont draws inspiration from the natural and hardworking landscapes where fields meet waterways and tradition shapes the future. Rich textures, clean silhouettes, and versatile styling give the collection a sense of quiet confidence, equally at home in casual family settings or elevated entertaining spaces.

Rooted in craftsmanship and designed for connection, Rivermont celebrates the places where life flows naturally and every meal becomes an occasion to gather.
